Description: - Paper - Two different watermarks. On f.1, a wreath (the ends cross at the bottom) with round projections, like leaves or buds, on both its inner and outer edges. Inside the wreath is a sword with its point upwards. The point curves to the right. The bottom of the sword curves out to either side. The result looks somewhat like a peace sign. Superimposed over the blade of the sword is a heart, with its point also facing upwards. The diameter of the outer edge of the wreath is about 90 mm. On f.4, letters reading "M4S". The 4 is taller than the M and S, and the downstroke of the 4 overlaps with the final minim of the M. The 4 is about 37 mm tall and the M is about 13 mm tall. The width of the entire watermark is 32 mm. UTS 037-36 has the same pair of watermarks. - 344 x 206 mm - Cover for the document is formed by ff. 1 and 4; the document itself is on ff. 2-3v.
